Periyar Meadows

A splendid location for an avid traveller, Periyar Meadows in God's own Country, Kerala, offers a wonderful destination. Tucked away on the edge of the Periyar Tiger Reserve, this place allows you to get up close and personal with nature. Also, do buy some deliciously aromatic cardamoms freshly plucked and sold at the market in Cumily very close to the property. A casual hotel, this one offers a comfortable accommodation in the wilderness. Rooms with balconies offering park views, wooden furnishings, cable TVs, writing desks and seating areas make your stay exquisite. The upgraded rooms add separate living areas with sofas. 24-hour room service lets you relax in the privacy of your room and call for in-room dining. Your kids, if aged at 4 and below, will get to stay free. The hotel offers a lavish and complimentary breakfast spread to guests each morning. If you want to get a taste of international cuisines, then head straight to the on-site restaurant.
